ITALIAN RIESLING (2024)	0,75 l	20 €	14 €
DRY	0,10 l	3,5 €

In its dry variety, this wine, also called the Queen of Wines, is typical of the Lendva Hill. Its fruity aroma is reminiscent of citrus fruits which give the overripe Olaszrizling its distinctiveness. The harmony between acidity and residual sugar will transport you into a world of unique flavours that you can only find here, on the Lendva Hill.

The king of white wines. Or as we call it, the wine for kings and queens. Higher quality wine. Complex, "manly", contains more alcohol. Elegant wine with the background of gentle "Forget me not" flowers.

PINOT BLANC (2019)	0,5 l	25 €	20 €
SWEET-SELECTION	0,10 l	4 €

This is the closest variety of grape to Chardonnay. This is a complex wine of higher quality that is still "well- travelled" just like a modern man. While containing more alcohol, the balance of its colour and its acidity level makes it unique and distinctive. This is one of our winemaker's favourite wines.

HADIK'S BLOOD (2020)	0,75 l	20 €	14 €
DRY	0,10 l	3,5 €

Pinot Noir, Blaufränkisch and Zweigelt. A combination of a Frenchman, a German and an Austrian. Despite the proud characteristics of all the types we have managed to make a very nice ruby colour, which is followed by sharpness, uniqueness and the magnitude of the wine. We also drink it to honour the rich historical Lendavian background, which was marked by the famous Mihael Hadik, the fallen warlord from the time of the Turkish invasions.

BÁNFFY'S (2021)	0,75 l	25 €	17 €
PINOT NOIR - DRY	0,10 l	4 €

100 % Pinot Noir. In the time of harvest, the grapes were overripe. This is shown by the red colour and the higher level of alcohol. One can taste the dried fruits and grandma's homemade marmalade. This makes us wonder: why the name Banffy's?

Limited, exclusive, barrique

The word “Barrique” is a French word that refers to a particular Oak barrel that traditionally holds 225 litres. Only the best vintages would end up in such barrels and by doing so, we combine the methods used by new, modern and traditional wineries. After spending 12 months in new oak barrels, the wines enjoy and high level of maturation and richness in fruity flavours. We serve them at a temperature of 18-20°C.

RHINE RIESLING (2017)

DRY - BARRIQUE

This wine has similar characteristics as its predecessor (look above). It has matured for 12 months in 225 l oak barrels.

HADIK’S BLOOD (2018)

DRY - BARRIQUE

We further developed our well-know Hadik cuveé. We thought this special vintage deserves special treatment, so this wine aged in 225 l oak barrels for 12 months. The result is a dried fruit and oak barrel flavoured grolius wine.

David vs. Goliath

Below you can see some non-standard dimensions for wine bottles which we have in our offering. What are the differences between each series? We invite you to find it out yourself: visit us and taste it!

- Demi = 0,375 l = 0,5 x 0,75 l bottle
- Magnum = 1,5 l = 2 x 0,75 l bottle
- Jerobam = 3 l = 4 x 0,75 l bottle
- Bordeaux Jerobam = 5 l = 6,67 x 0,75 l bottle

HADIK’S BLOOD (2017)

DRY

The already well known Hadik’s Blood cuveé (Pinot Noire, Zweigelt, Blaufrankisch) is now even more perfected. We have poured the wine from 2017 to 225 l and 300 l oak barrels. The result was an interesting combination of two kinds of barrels, which is not a classical barrique. Also we have this as a limited edition in 0,375 l, 1,5 l and 5 l bottles.

For big and small foodies

We are happy to serve you our home made plate with our dried and dry-aged meats.

The content of our plates includes meat specialties like the local meso iz tunke, zašink, ham, salami, smoked ribs, sausages, pork lard spread and our own seasonal fresh or pickled vegetables. Also, we added something to the plate for our vegetarians. It is the cheese from our refrigerator, cut with our machine so we sometimes joke and say it is 50% our own homemade cheese.
